U OF I
LIBRARY

An International Intelligence Service

ON ONE COUNT, ABOVE ALL OTHERS, EUROPA'S CLAIM TO LEADERSHIP IS UNCHALLENGEABLE—its information is always up-to-date. An annual reference book, no matter how carefully it is edited, soon contains obsolete information. A change in government a week after publication renders that section useless. In EUROPA a change of government is soon followed by a new page to replace the old in the loose-leaf binder. Over 800 pages are revised every year—immediately the new information becomes necessary.

THE EVER WIDENING FIELDS OF HUMAN INTEREST, THE SPEED OF INTERNATIONAL communications, and the constant search for new outlets for manufactures demand a more complete knowledge and appreciation of foreign countries and their peoples than was necessary only a few years ago.

EUROPA SUPPLIES THAT KNOWLEDGE AND IS AN INESTIMABLE BOON TO ALL WHO SEEK TO KEEP pace with the swiftly-changing modern scene. Volume I provides all the vital facts concerning European countries, their governments and institutions. For example:

WHAT ARE THE CHIEF RAILWAY AND SHIPPING COMPANIES AND AIR LINES OF PORTUGAL? THE principal banks in Latvia and their capital? The leading daily and periodical publications in Rumania and their Editors? And the addresses of these and many other institutions in all European countries?

THE ANSWERS TO THESE AND MANY OTHER QUESTIONS ARE READILY FOUND IN VOLUME I OF EUROPA.

EVERY COUNTRY IS TREATED COMPREHENSIVELY; WITH A STATISTICAL SURVEY, LISTS OF government and permanent officials, diplomatic representatives, political alignments, press and publishing, broadcasting, banks, financial institutions, insurance companies, industrial and commercial organisations, museums and art galleries, libraries, learned societies and leading persons in literature and the arts. The information is presented completely but concisely for immediate reference. In addition, there are valuable sections on the League of Nations, World Politics, World Economics, International Organisations, and Non-Europeans in Europe.

TO COMPLEMENT THIS VAST STORE OF KNOWLEDGE, THE EUROPEAN WHO'S WHO (VOLUME II) supplies vital data concerning the most prominent personalities in every country in Europe and in virtually every field of human endeavour: politicians, diplomatists, ecclesiastics, business men, industrialists, labour leaders, writers, artists, musicians, publicists, scientists, educationists, etc.

THE VOLUME OF EUROPEAN ARCHIVES IS RECORD OF RECENT EUROPEAN HISTORY AND SUPPLEments the up-to-date information in Volume I with a vast background of information delineating the course of events in European affairs.

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS (The Royal Institute of International Affairs): "If one were to imagine the European sections of the 'Statesman's Year Book,' 'Whitaker,' the 'Political Handbook of the World,' the 'League of Nations Year Book,' the 'League of Nations Directory of International Organisations' and European equivalents of 'Who's Who,' Press and Business directories, compressed within the space of 2000 pages, some idea of the considerable achievement of the EUROPA Service and the scope of their publications might be obtained."

FOREWORD

THE INTERNATIONAL WHO'S WHO now appears in the fourth completely revised edition and the publishers are confident that it will be accorded as warm a welcome as has been given to previous editions.

THE EDITORS repeat their request for suggestions for the improvement of the volume and for correction of any errors that may have crept in, and they invite the submission of names for inclusion. They also wish to remind all who receive questionnaires that they will render the greatest assistance by returning them promptly, and that the retention of any biography cannot be assured unless the questionnaire is returned.

AMERICAN READERS are asked to note that the term "politician" is used in the English sense, as meaning "one engaged in politics", and has no derogatory application. Similarly the description "lawyer" is applied generally to legal practitioners.
